

1

GOOD FOR FAMILIES with lower prices in our shops thanks to free trade – and maternity and paternity leave protected by EU law.

GOOD FOR WORKERS with over 3 million UK jobs linked to our trade with the EU (source: HM Treasury) and vital workers' rights like paid holiday leave protected by the EU.

GOOD FOR PENSIONERS with the freedom to live, travel and retire abroad – and pensions are more valuable because our economy is stronger in Europe.

4

GOOD FOR HOLIDAYMAKERS with EU action making it cheaper to use your phone abroad and driving down the cost of flights by 40% (source: European Commission).

5

GOOD FOR SMALL BUSINESSES who are free to sell to 500 million people across the EU. Over 200,000 UK businesses trade goods with the EU, which creates more UK jobs (source: HMRC).

6

GOOD FOR YOUNG PEOPLE who are free to travel, study and work abroad – and EU funding supports UK universities, helping students get on in life.

GOOD FOR SECURITY

The European Arrest Warrant makes Britain safer, as it means we can arrest and deport criminals across the EU.

GOOD FOR JOBS

From 2014-2020, the UK has been allocated £8.7 billion in EU Structural Funds. The money will be used to create jobs, to assist the start-up of businesses, and to support research and technical development projects.

GOOD FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Being in the EU means the UK benefits from environmental legislation and funding - helping the fight against climate change and pollution, and also supporting vital scientific research.

GOOD FOR WOMEN

with the EU protecting women's rights in the workplace, including vital anti-discrimination and equal pay laws.
