VICTORY! LOLLYPOP PATROLLERS

SAVED AS TORIES CLIMBDOWN

Daniel Zeichner MP paid tribute to campaigners including Abbey People who forced the Conservative-led county council to back down from their ill thought out plans to sack all our lollypop patrollers. Daniel said: "Our children's safety must always come first."

LIB DEMS

The Lib Dem leader told his MPs

Sadly, just as the former Lib Dem

once again trooped in through the lobbies to support the Tories.

DANIEL ZEICHNER
MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT FOR CAMBRIDGE
HOUSE OF COMMONS,
LONDON, SW1A 0AA

Dear resident,

One of the biggest decisions in Parliament since my last report was the vote on air strikes in Syria. I voted against air strikes because I didn't believe a convincing and credible strategy was presented to defeat ISIS/Daesh.

Closer to home, I'm proud to stand up for residents against the Tories who are fighting the wrong battles. This Government is making the housing crisis worse, attacking junior doctors and cutting support for students.

Whilst sadly Labour MPs mainly get out-voted in Westminster we forced a U-turn on tax credits and in Cambridge the Labour-run council has stepped in to stop the street light switch off.

For me, Cambridge always comes first.

Best wishes,

Daniel

DANIEL ZEICHNER MP

Focus on transport

GRIDLOCK

Doing nothing about the traffic in Cambridge is simply not an option. That will lead to gridlock. When the City Deal for Cambridge was first announced local people were optimistic. But since then we've all been left disappointed. The Tory/Lib Dem Government watered down the plan and now unimaginative Conservative County Council is showing a lack of vision and is ignoring the unique character of Cambridge.

STATION HITS BUFFERS AGAIN

Commuters have reacted angrily to yet another delay to the opening of Cambridge North station. It was meant to be open by now, but it has been put back yet another six months to May 2017. Meanwhile the Cambridge station redevelopment saga continues with the chaos of competing buses, bikes and taxis making accessing the station a nightmare! Daniel has demanded answers from Network Rail and an assurance there will be no more delays.

SAVE OUR BUS

"I won't be able to get to Addenbrooke's," said Sylvia (pictured left). That's because Stagecoach have stopped the Citi 8 bus service in the city centre. The well-loved bus used to run through Arbury and Chesterton direct to the station and then onto Addenbrooke's. Daniel Zeichner MP is furious. TORIES PEDAL BROKEN PROMISES

The body set up by the Government to promote cycling safety has not met for two years – that's what probing from Daniel Zeichner MP uncovered.

Daniel said: "It's not good enough. The Government must put in place a new dedicated cycling safety group. They should think long and hard about side-lining cyclists."

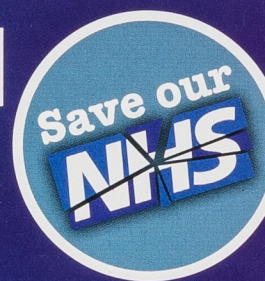

NINJA NHS PRIVATISERS - MP MAKES TORIES FACE QUESTIONS

A government health minister was forced to face questions on the collapse of Cambridgeshire's doomed £750 million NHS Uniting Care contract after Daniel Zeichner MP called a special debate in the Commons.

The key role of the influential but shadowy "Strategic Projects Team" which brokered the deal was questioned by Daniel. This team were branded as "hired guns" by File on 4 and called "the 'ninja' NHS privatisers" by transparency campaigners.

Daniel Zeichner MP said: "Cambridge has been subjected to a series of failed privatisation experiments - now we need our local health services to get back to the basics of providing good care."

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER

FEED-IN TARIFFS BEES

While the world has committed to strengthen climate action in Paris the Tory Government has slashed support for the solar industry.

Following an important debate on neo-nicotinoides BugLife reported "Some MPs appeared confused about the term bees and whether this just referred to domestic honey bees or included the 275 species of wild bees, but others, especially Daniel Zeichner, were fully on the ball."

SAVE OUR BBC

Daniel continued to oppose the Government's assault on the BBC speaking out about their plans to shorten the Charter period to exert more political influence.

PROUD OF OUR NHS

The Government should never have got into a dispute with our hardworking doctors over a 7 day a week NHS. Of course they work 7 days a week—and they deserve to be properly paid for that work.

STUDENT LOANS

Daniel voted against scrapping student maintenance loans which the Tory Government tried to sneak through without a proper debate.

CAMBRIDGE STRONGER IN EUROPE

Daniel Zeichner MP is leading the campaign for Britain to remain in the European Union because he believes it is the right decision for Cambridge.

He says: "Thousands of Cambridge jobs are linked to trade with Europe. Businesses and our universities benefit from EU research funds. We now live in peace in a continent that for centuries was ravaged by war."
