Dear Mrs Lawlett,

I am very sorry

I express to you
myself the true & sincere sympathy
they feel for you
in your present
terrible bereavement,
as well as my sincere regret for the tops of spears distinguished huskiness, who bore a peace in the hands his great trial with such courage & patience & who served his Queen & Country

ably & faithfully.

You, who were
so devoted a wife & home, must com-
miserably in this hour of overwhelming grief,
be gratified by the universal expressions of respect & regret
on this sad occasion
That He who alone

can give consolation
in the hour
of affliction, may support you, is the earnest wish of
yours,

Sincerely
Your affectionate
Friend
