TORKINGTON LODGE,
HAZELGROVE,
CHESHIRE.

June 14. 13.

Dear Mr. Harvey

I write to thank you for the delightful visit to your house. My only regret is that I had to be out of it so much,
to see practically nothing of you. Some day may I bring my girl over to spend a night or two with you? She will be forced to see so much of curious people, rudders less & often harmful, that I long

for her to have real friend in the Society.

I feel very small &
weak to carry all the responsibilities that have settled on my shoulders;
& the Family is the nearest of all.

Happy Family Life
seems to me the rarest &

Most sacred thing on earth.

With kindest regards

to you both

Yours sincerely

Anna Barlow.
