Dear Daisy

I need to have answer p<sup>r</sup> u letter before this. He has had of sister ill. I shall like my mind to come & see p<sup>r</sup> mother & myself & then I shall tell you when I address my mind. He kind of go to see me. I shall come when he writes is very much. In I am very broodied & have to dodge bad days in order to keep going. He I hope it will be fairly fine. I hope my brother of a book with mother of my sister. I
