Dear Miss Wilkinson. Thank-you for your letter. I am grateful to you for letting me see your suggested letter to Bp of London.
Excellent. But may I urge you omit what I have pencilled out & let the sentence run thus "We are aware that this view does not find general acceptance in the Anglican Church but we think the time is ripe" I will tell you why I think this important.

1) The question of Re-union has been used by the Bishops as a stalking horse to put off any reform. The married priesthood in the Anglican Church is just as great a barrier. The R.C. Church will never ^{accept} ~~abandon~~ it, the Anglican Church will never abandon it.

2) It is not a genuine issue & the Bishops know it in their hearts. See the enclosed & do please keep it. This has been said by the R.C. authorities again & again. The argument that the ordination of women would put off re. v. n. o. n. is unreal. Our Bishops taken en bloc are as obscurantist as the R. C. Church.

Yes, do send a copy to D'haen Post

You are quite right about not not trying to send the book at the Dean of St Paul's request — it was not a wise suggestion.

Yours sincerely

All good wishes
