Dearest Pippa

Egged on by Jim, I wrote a note and sent it in to Mrs. Barrington requesting her to send me her list of ladies! She sent back a verbal reply to say that she didn't think she would be able to come herself and that she would look for her list but didn't think she had it in London! Evidently her action has been deliberate. Did you write

Mrs. Gops. Rowe, Miss Clauce. 51 Prince's Gate, Lady Lovry, Mrs. A. Clouf, Lady Davy to Mrs. Bidpatte, Marjorie Tree, Miss Paget, and don't forget Arthur Preudel.

Send me the prospecti at once and I will forward them to my people. My Lady Betty Balfour.

Jim thinks you had better send Marjorie to the sea for a week with Ellen or Miss Schaller ^{to lodgings}. I can give you the address of two at Broad-stairs if you like, not very expensive. Ever thine Elion.

P. S. As an inducement to weah-minded people put "of Bayreuth" opposite Mr. Armb.'s name. I have just had a card from Mrs. Freeman saying that if she "by any chance is in town on May 23rd she shall venture to apply for any chance returned seats".

List continued.

Mrs. Arnold Forster, Mrs. Halsey,

Mrs. Macleay, Mrs. Richer, Miss Williams.
