

Working Women

AL/2848

15th July 1911

Dear Madam,

I beg to enclose 13/6 in payment of fares for women who came to our Meeting on June 2nd. I greatly trust the women have not suffered inconvenience owing to the delay in forwarding this money, but as has been already stated, we cannot find any record of the application to which you refer, and fear it may have been lost in the post.

I greatly hope we may have other Meetings which you and some of the women will attend.

Will you be so kind as to ~~receipt~~ the enclosed and return it to me.

Yours truly,

Attn

Mrs M.E. Smith.
