Dear Sir

Some time ago I requested your predecessor in the Government of the Bank of England to place in the List of Candidates for Women Clerkships at the Bank, the name of Miss Hall; which Mr. Landon informed me he would do as you will observe by the enclosed letter

She is the daughter of my ^{Wife's} S^{ervant}, who has been with me for over 30 years, as a Page in my Establishment and is I believe a very excellent & well educated young woman, & I have therefore no hesitation in recommending her as to your notice, & I should feel grateful if you could see your way to appointing her to such a post in the Office. I make this further appeal, as from a letter of the Secretary herewith, there seems to be some doubt as to the fact of my having made such a request.

You will observe that in this there has been some misapprehension. My Duty of you to return to me the two letters inclosed & believe me to remain, dear Sir

Yours very truly

George
The Governor of the Bank of England.
