Dear Madam.

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of today and sincerely regret that your previous letter was not replied to. I put some other correspondence away with it quite slipped my memory. ^{after it was read to members of the Women's Section} and in consequence

I shall be very pleased to do what I can to make the meeting to be held on June 2nd known to the members of the L.A. Union and should be glad if you will kindly forward me your return if possible some tickets for disposal about 3 doz I should think the Women's Section which consists of delegates from the various branches meet on Sunday next and by that means I can get them well circulated. Also will you please enclose a few handbills, and kindly tell me if the meeting is for men & women both

If there are any further details that would be of advantage I think perhaps it would be well if you could kindly communicate them by letter, as I have not a spare evening before Sunday, and during the day my time is occupied with business.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully.
