Dear Miss Hughes,

We are having a meeting of the ^{women} Employees of the General Post Office on March 22nd, 5.30-7.30 p.m. We are expecting about 100 people, and there will probably be present several members of the Executive Committee and some of the Hon. Secretaries of the branches. I am writing to ask, whether, if you are disengaged for that day you will come and recite at the meeting. We are not able to offer a fee but would of course pay expenses. The meeting is not a long one so that the only time at your disposal will be from five to ten minutes. I do not know whether you would care to come. It would be a great pleasure if you think it worth while.

Yours truly,

P. S.
