

Berlin April 21st 94.

Dear Nelly

AL 13768

My mother sends her love to you.

I received your letter to-day at noon and we send off the parcel accordingly, thanking you very much for kindly taking over these long-delayed gifts. Of course you must cut off so much of the white card-board round the photos as exceeds the limits of your box. As you did not mention whether the size was too large or not, we did not do so ourselves,

Thinking it a pity to mutilate them perhaps needlessly. The photos are for Fanny Peters and her friend Miss ² (a painter) from Ellen, the fan from Mrs for Caroline and the cushions from my mother for Mrs. Peters. As you are going to Chelsea and that is so near the Peters, perhaps your mother will have the goodness to send over the things to the Peters. My sisters have written long before about them, so that no introduction is required

I never expected, dear Kelly, that you would go so much out of your way to see me at Berlin, and I think with you that it would not be worth while, as you have so little time to spare and I am very much engrossed by my mother.
Let us hope for a meeting in the summer, then, one way or the other. I cannot go a long journey having promised part of my holidays to friends in the Piesenitz and the rest to my people at Blankenburg. But perhaps you can arrange to pass by Berlin one way or they may be some other chance. I am glad you found your brother progressing satisfactorily and do after all enjoy your stay in the Tennies. In any case I think the trip will do you good physically as well as mentally.

I return the compliments of Dr.
D. in kind and am glad you like him. Good bye, dear friend

Yours affably
Alison Cobden.
