My dear Daisy.

I appreciate your letter of sympathy & tribute to my dear Emmeline. My warm thanks.

She was indeed a wonderful person & I count myself highly favoured to have had such a mate & for so long.

We had the cremation
- a simple but beautiful ceremony at Woking & I said a few words to the congregation - a print of which I enclose.

Last week we had a "commemorative reception" - so much warmer & more personal than a memorial service. I sent a report in the Workers Bulletin which I think you will like to read.

I have given up fourways & ^{am} making the above London flat my home but I shall be away next week -
-entirely staying with friends.

With love & wishes
Affectionately Yours

Fred.
