MISS MACKENZIE,
29, ONSLOW SQUARE, S.W.

..... April 21 1909.

Dear Miss Mackenzie,

I am sorry I do not yet know the actual rates of pay in the lace associations, & I have not time to find out, as I hear you want this little notice tonight.

The fact about the pay being taken out in goods, came up at a little meeting we got up at Wendover, last year for the Anti-Sweating League. Perhaps Mr. Hallon would know more on this point -

I hear that the only chance the women have of getting a fair rate of pay is to help to form an association, unless they sell their work regularly to a local patron.

Yours truly

Mrs. B. R. Mackenzie.
