My dear Mrs. Pike,

Much to my regret I find & that it will be necessary for me to be in the House of Commons
on Tuesday evening.
I must, therefore, very reluctantly forego the pleasure of dining with you. I am

much disappointed,
as I should so much have enjoyed a quiet evening with
you. It was so very kind of you

to let Philippa go in your carriage to the Cayleys.

With kind regards

believe me

Yours very truly

Henry Fawcett
