Dearest Amy

Your letter to Agnes, which she has forwarded to me, reminded me of your birthday. I am so sorry not to have remembered it at the right time but you know how terribly I wish you all happiness & blessing.
I am telling Mrs. Love to send you a new life of Harry, written by an American lady which I hope you will accept with my best love.

I was greatly interested by all you say about Jock. He seems to have done splendidly in the work on which he specialized.
and it is capital to hear how well a thing he looks after this many months of training. You must let us hear about them from time to time.

Agnes is coming back on Saturday.
I always feel rather like a fish out of water without her.
Will Jean come & over so many hearty, though belated birthday

Good wishes

Ever your lovingly

M. J. Sawate
