Dear Mrs. Walsh, Please thank Maurice for his letter. So sorry I could not write soon was struggling to finish my book "The Homefront" publ. 1932

I fear the publishers may think it too anti-war and try to break contract with me when they read it. If you feel inclined do write and say you saw a notice of it in some paper and want to know is it ready to Hutchinsons 35-6 Paternoster Row E.C.
"The Homefront". Please don't let Richard is very well getting a bit very

With all good wishes them think the author suggested it. That would not do!

Maurice says you are worried about Hastings. What does that mean? Is it that you have no one to look after your dear mother's house?

— Why I just see there is another page. I am so sorry.
Would it be best to let the place altogether. There are two nice women here. They are leaving because one has lost her job — not her fault at all. I just wonder whether there might be anything in bringing you together.
They are from Lancashire and one of them is a very good cook. The other had a 'ladies' outfitting presumably but her husband after part of propriety took to speculation East. all would be of the shock. They are really dear women I should like to help
