Delisle Bridge
Bengal
9th Aug. 1995

My dear Pippa

We are having what is called a break in the rains which means no rain a hot sun & steamy atmosphere & it is rather beastly - I am off next week I think for a fortnight to Murrumbidgee, the exact day depends on when I can get some loathesome drawings finished. I want to go on Saturday to day being Wednesday but fear I shant be able to get before Tuesday if then.

Palmer is sending some elegant photographs of bridges &c to Papa by this mail - which I hope will cheer him up on his bed of sickness.

The Prophet Ezekiel is going to make a imitation on us e.g. the Araah collector acting for Geake on leave - I suppose he is an Armenian.

Nothing fresh
