Dear Daisy

I am so glad to see you & love his pleasure. I can't come on Friday afternoon as I have a literary committee in town. But if you are in on Sunday afternoon I will run in there to see you for good luck. I am staying here while I'm found another place.
I fear my old one is in heaven & I have been out of London, & am glad to be back again. I hope to see you in 4 days or so. Love to the dear mother &

Daisy
