25 Nov.

My dear Nellie

1919

We are very sorry indeed to lose Mr. Draper - he has helped us on women Suffrage occasions & to preserve the robes & birds from destruction & stands for a League of Nations & often discussed labour questions with B & me, so dispassionately & ^{with as many nice verbs -} ~~thickly~~ - we are very sorry - But he will be so much happier because he isn't good with poor people - visiting them isn't his role - he is a scholar first & foremost -

There, since he came years ago, his wife & his youngest daughter died & three sons killed through the war, so he must be weary of his house here & the trees & hedges. He has one son & two daughters - they are all young - in early twenties -

Emil loves Mr. Draper more than I do - naturally - but I like him very very much. I am sure you will find him very nice to know - He really has been wonderfully good to me considering all my treacherous opinions - the more I think of it

the house I see he has -

I am sure you will like him - do call on him - he would be so pleased -

- I am so glad you are a delegate dear Nellie - it's the very best thing for the delegation & I am so glad. I shall want to know about it & will read it in the papers I hope -

Emily is away just now - Today, the sun is shining a little which is very helpful. The rest the stars most marvellous just now - Venus & Co. are really extraordinary -

I so often think of you & carest Ages - Please thank her for her card

Always your loving

Scabelle Ford.
