

A2/2833

Working Women
Meeting

This meeting of working women regrets the decision of the Government to refuse facilities to the Conciliation Bill this year, calls attention to the ambiguity of its promise for next year, rejects any offer of a further academic debate, and demands the fulfilment of the Prime Minister's pledge to provide full and effective facilities for the passing of the Women's Enfranchisement Bill.