

3 clean Philadelphia,
I have told you

Long Jores, 5081
Hocking
Voravich
July 7 - 1956

So many great things about the Farmer - Farmer Scoyle in particular
I have told you
I must tell you a good one There one plank could be water, merely because of a polite request to see that the marsh fire he was lighting would be put out / night fall - there are other bad things done to Shites - My housekeeper M^{rs} North came this morning saying that Scoyle asked her to tell me that Farmer Borrett - a nice man (not always) & a friend - would like to see me - he is almost blind & Scoyle is deaf - but not to say M^{rs} Borrett had asked - of course I go tho' it pains me to much to see blindmen - it seems Scoyle never minds going daily to visit Borrett & brings him the news of the market in Nomin & so on. I think that is ^{can} much af. Poor M^{rs} Borrett.

yesterday was the anniversary of Phil's death is by your July 6: 1955. M^{rs} North wept - she said it was worse for her when I was here as she expected us to come together. She was weeding & she often did this with Phil - she says she always feels he near & ~~turns~~ ^{turns} round to say something as then finds she is not there. She had her son after a long illness, with much suffering, was a hospitable to the Japanese & returned in a healthy state - 3 months before Phil went. we heard at Jerusalem & we had.
Yours M^s From M

she seems to like herself to see the she feels better - she seems to like herself to see the she says she always feels he near & turns round to say she says when I go M^{rs} North says she feels better - she seems to like herself to see the

NAME AND ADDRESS OF SENDER

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London, S.W.1.

1911
~~1911~~

IF USED FOR TRANSMISSION TO ANY PLACE ABROAD TO WHICH THE 2½d. RATE OF LETTER POSTAGE DOES NOT APPLY, THE ADDITIONAL POSTAGE REQUIRED SHOULD BE PREPAID BY MEANS OF ADHESIVE
POSTAGE STAMPS

9-7-56

LETTER

CARD

Mrs. Shackley
51 Gordon Street
London