BISHOP'S HOUSE,

KENNINGTON PARK. S. E. 11.

Dear Miss Picton-Turbevill,

I am very grateful to you for your letter, and for your kind thought of sending me your interesting and valuable book. I daresay you know that I am sending on the Archbishops' Committee which is investigating the question, and I will of course most carefully read your book, and I am sure that it will help me in the enquiry.

I will write to you later on about it.

Yours very sincerely,
