Dear Mr. Felix,

I was so sorry to hear of you being so knocked-up, and very sorry for you, but to see you yesterday, you were very kind to send Mr. Palmer, and the deed of my child, was all through the air by kind of her. I am glad to say that the last day 3d!

What makes me so sure is that

Oh to see you was what I was expecting. I would be thanking you for your beautiful notice of my Byron in the Bookman.
I had only just got it from Romeke - else I should have written sooner. I really wonder that we one has been kinder - certainly we one has said the words you have said so - of the author so unwisely - about the labours such a work implies; I prize them, because they "come from one who knows all about it, and has felt how they like the same and the occasion next so forgetful as I was a fortnight. The 1st weeks the notice in the book is very good & the and I believe of me, the only notice of the same passage in your issues. Thank you with all my love to Mr. Plean left this date as of behind, I don't know how many at least have the letter your former number in Haybury Road, else I should not know the number of it.

I do hope you will soon be back with you.

With renewed gratitude
- renewed very true I have read the notice, and rest is often -

Yours very sincerely
Ethel Colburn Mayne
