Dear Madam,

At the meeting of the N. U. W. S. executive committee on Thursday, I understood that the London Society was anxious to get a number of working-women to attend the Albert Hall meeting on Nov: 12, if their expenses could be guaranteed. The N. U. did not, as of course you have heard, make any grant, but — it was suggested that individuals might — subscribe to a fund. I enclose cheque for £2.

Yours sincerely,

A. Maude Royden.
