My dear Fern

I am indeed delighted at the idea of your all coming to Blackport. It is most pleasant here just now, warm, but not over poweringly hot. I wrote to Amanda Langensiecke & had a very nice reply, which I will translate & send on with the letters your mother has sent me to read. I have sent one of the forms to Amanda, with your mother's permission. I also wrote to Agathe Becker, Alfred Becker's widow. I asked her to send word to Dr. Arthur Becker, as I was not sure of his address. From News 7594 have heard nothing as yet, most likely they are off somewhere for the summer If I do not hear soon I shall ask Amanda for Dr Arthur's address. It was from him that Amanda got your father's address, when she wrote about dear Arthur's death. She would my address & got it from your father I believe.

I wish well but am very weak.

Dear love to you all from your affectionate Aunt Emie.

P.S. I am amazed to hear of Dink's extraordinary attitude for figures.
