Dear Miss Strachey,

I am enclosing postal order for £ 1. 3. 6 the amount I received at Wimbledon, also the book in which people signed their names there, wherever the name of the place is not put after the address, Wimbledon is correct. You will see that I have put post. after those who paid at the time, the others ought to have reminders sent to them. Please keep the book for me as I shall want it on my return to work. I am enclosing my account & the account books to you, as I am not quite sure, but I think ~~some~~ said the other day that Mrs Dimock was going away, so I was afraid there would be delay & so I can't afford to wait for my expenses until September, I thought I had better send direct to you & so be sure the expenses come into the cheque.

If I am wrong, would you kindly send the books on to Mrs Dimock.

Mrs Shakespeare drew up the account for Wimbledon & I added on what I had spent, so 7/9 will have to go to her, would you like to send it to her direct, in which case my account will only be £12. 2. 8½, or I can send it to her, whichever you think best, her address is 10, Berkeley Place Wimbledon. Also, I think you had better send the account you have received for the printing to Lady Jib, & say that I told you she kindly wished it sent to ^{her} you.

I am enclosing the list of the Parish Committee & am writing to Mr. Stiles again, as she has not yet sent me the calling list. I have not heard from Mrs Pym about the accounts, have you?
I blessed her on Friday, as she hanging about all day waiting for her, I was not able to get my packing done before I went to the Yacomb Woods, so was obliged to keep my room on & return to town today.
The Yacomb Woods are going to have a drawing room meeting in October so we think that is the best way of starting the work on Ox'ed. In great haste,

Yours very sincerely,
Mildred Watson.
