Dear Madam

I am sorry there as been so much trouble
about the members that attended the meeting at Queen's Hall to get there expenses paid as the letter said they would be paid our Secretary
as sent to Miss Stracey twice once with names and addresses, and when you say that no letter has been received it seems rather unfair after the hard way ^{our Secretary} she worked to make the meeting a success

from you
not hearing, she was thinking of calling at the Office to see you
but as she was taken ill and has gone to Scotland for a change
she was unable to do so. Mrs. Kidda wrote to you on her own behalf not for our joint members I am enclosing
the names and addresses of the members that attended the meeting but should you wish to save expense you can send one order and I will give it to them at our next meeting as I am doing the Secretary's work for the time she is away I was at the meeting myself and enjoyed it very much and will always be willing to work and do all I can

for the good cause we are working for which I hope won't be long before we get.

Mrs. Kidda did not give me paper or envelope so I cannot return it as you state in your letter to her which she ^{as} gave me

but—hope this will do?

I am, dear Madam
Yours Truly
