Madam

Were I ever
indisposed to such things (as I am quite the reverse) I should not hesitate to comply with the request
of a lady so amiable,
accomplished, and
respected as you.

Sir - I only regret that I cannot afford a larger sum for the disfranchisement, than the
which I have inclosed.

Yours truly
Sheffield
Miss Garratt
I should wish to leave my right of

"Nominating Patents"
to your hands.
