Dearest Tom and my precious children

My thoughts will be with you, as always, tomorrow. I hope by next Sunday we shall know exactly how long we are to be parted. There is a lady in prison called May Jones a tight fit with older Lari. is she any relation to the Jones Jones knows. I have not seen the papers this morning Mr. Lope there is some chance of the strike being called. I shall feel much happier about you then. Mrs. Parkhurst. Miss Ethel Smythe and Miss Darcass are in. Miss Brackenbury Love and me out. May not have more than the flowers so it is no good thing many. I get two scarves every day now. it is very nice having the change in the afternoon.

Auntie Patti came to see me yesterday.

I am quite well and there is no fear to my health. Stand by each other my darlings & let it be always time for the little days so that I will not miss his old Mother's love & polite thanks to Harriet.

Tell Mrs. Frost a vote every well to Harriet's father.

Goodbye my darlings

Your loving Mother.

Auntie Patti has been to see me.
Many thanks
