Wentworth Apr. 21. 70

Dear Sir

I have just seen where Mr. Jones. who has descended with me your visit to Wentworth said that the last fortnight in May will visit him. I have no reason to think that I shall be away at that time, though I cannot yet state the time of my being in London. I expect that Mr. March of both told you your own invitation, I you should certainly give a day or two there before or after your visit to Bristol There is however so much here & in the neighbourhood which would be both interesting & very valuable to you; & we shall wish so much to see you, myself especially, that I hope you would not give us by less than a fortnight here.

Mr. James would be happy for you to take up your abode at his house, promising that you may be under any escort as much as you like, for I shall have much to show you & to talk to you about. He would also be happy

9/31/19

To see one or two of your friends. - It requests that you will write to him at once, to tell him if this note has agreed to you.

Please also send me a line. Mrs Carpenter, Bristol note always find me.

Yours truly,
Mary Carpenter
