

FROM . . .
T. SMITHIES TAYLOR.

Copy for.....
4
10

4120

26. 4. 1912.

To/
The Editor "Votes for Women",
4 Clements Inn,
London. W.C.

Copy sent to Re Suffragette prisoners in Holloway.

D. Wilks
D. Wilks File.

Not for publication.

4
14 File.
File.

Dear Sir,

I note that on page 470 of your issue of April 26/12, you give the name of Mrs. N. Taylor as being released before the expiration of her sentence, and after the Hunger Strike.
I have not noticed 2 prisoners of the same name in your lists, and as I visited my wife Mrs. Nellie Taylor on Wednesday afternoon last (the 24th inst.) at Holloway, I think you must have made a mistake.

Yours faithfully.

P. T.

P.S. 27. 4. 12.

I have just received the enclosed from Home Office, notifying Mrs. Taylor's release, but I have not heard from Mrs. Taylor.

Enclos. Copy Home Office Letter. Dated 26. 4. 12.