Walthamstow.

August 1st, 1912.

Dear Sirs,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 26th ult.

No assault was committed upon Mr. Smithies Taylor.

He travelled from his House at Leicester for the purpose of wilfully creating a disturbance at a Political Meeting intended for people residing in Metropolitan Essex and having achieved the object for which he set out, he was removed from the meeting and the private premises upon which it was held with as little inconvenience to him as was under the circumstances possible.

I have no proposal to make to him.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

F.T.C.Bristow,

Secy.
