28th March 1911.

My Dear Garrett,

Thank you for a very kind letter.

As you surmise I miss the House of Commons and I do not leave it willingly.

I am sorry to say that on April 25th I am to be out of London, otherwise I should have liked to have come to revive old associations on the occasion of the pleasant event which is happening in your family.

Yours very truly,

Hardacre Coane
