

From Lady Frances B. AL/993
March 7. 1912

Asquith reports that at Grilleian on Monday, Cantuar, Haldane, Grey, Asquith. All agreed nothing more could be done this session of Suffrage. Asquith told them the police believed that there was a plot to assassinate Lloyd George. Betsy says, she knows L. George threatened resignation if a clause enabling women was not permitted in the Manhood Suffrage Bill. Asquith was so angry he would not speak for some days.

She truly remarks, this man they tried to throw down this afternoon, they have broken the same windows in Jay's, wh. they broke before -

Goringe, also -

I hear all those advertisements in L. & W. have been spared Derry & Toms, also, they are known good suffragists, & meetings have been held among their workers -
