

July 17
From Mrs. HENRY FAWCETT, 2, Gower Street, London, W.C.

Dearest Amy,

AL/3198

I feel sure you will like to have these photographs of the table in St. Martin Church I am enclosing two as I thought you would like to send one to Johnnie. The oval is white marble on a slab of Devonshire alabaster. The work was Done by a local man named Carson; he took great pains to do it as well as he possibly could. Miss Cohen drew out the lettering. The tablet is on the wall next the door on the left - as you face the door from the inside of the church.

D. & Elsie tell you how we met yesterday by accident in Dover Street? I am sending me a few little photographs to her. Ever your affectionately
W. J. Fawcett
