Dearest - We forgot
the old master for Sat aftⁿ. I will be opposite the small Gainsborough blue boy, in the big room, at 9. I will wait about there ten minutes or so for the chance of your being able to come.

That happy hour last night quite dispersed the mist
- the way thru one it was that was trying to come between me & perfectly Dorene happiness. In fact it vanished when you said you had perceived it too! Beloved, we will not be under the dominion of mists.

Yours ever

E.F.
