

I think Mrs
Stodds gave writer to her.

Dear Mrs. Stodds - It is dreadfully culpable of me not to have known about the Fawcett library until I got your appeal for it, but I didn't. To the appeal I have responded in an inadequate manner. But what I can't undo is the fact that only three days earlier I had thrown out a whole packet of stuff about the address: 'Francis League, the British Women's Hospital & other organisations with which my mother was connected, & which might have been of use to the library. The endorsed, however, came to light in a subsequent depor-out & throw-away effort

- it is a letter to me from Christabel Paulkurst at the time of my mother's death; & might be of interest because of her reference to her own mother

If so the library is very welcome; & I'm very sorry about the rest.

With all good wishes,

Cordially

Margaret Webster
