

4888

Allenswood

Wimbledon Park

S. W.

24th September

1893

My dearest Pippa,

Many kiss thanks for your letter; wishing I was at Lyster Court, though by this time you will have enough company to encourage you. I enclose a letter for Jembeau's birthday. I was absolutely unable to get him anything but I hope something will turn up before we meet.

Signorina sends you her love & wants to know when you are coming back.

I am also to tell you that Dizzie has lost her brother; this is a story that for you to write to her. Her address is

199 Chaussée de Malines

Antwerp
Belgium.

I wrote & mentioned that my sisters sympathies were with her etc but I think you might write off your ^{an} lat. It was only 23.

Brotherly told me the thrilling news of the confidence; it interests me highly.

Marie & I have our French classes alone; rather a painful development is having to write a daily letter. It is otherwise very nice.

All yesterday we were occupied in putting the books into the new book shelves in the library. They look very noble.

Farewell

gr loving

Perine

What is Lyt's address?