

Abington House
Edinburgh

Oct. 23.

My dear Miss Becker.

I hope you will be amused if I say I am very anxious for the sentiments - or opinion about women magistrates to be put in - for I was surprised what favour it met with - but I have softened it down I hope you will object to the alteration - and I am most anxious for that short notice to to be put in - even an enemy has approved of that - I have left out the last bit - but I had better want of courtesy as it may not be politic to say more.

Charles is in London - I hope you are sent down a slip to Helen Elms - we shall be quite willing to do what is just and right for you - as Chesyon has not a expense belonging to a W. T. society - I should have been glad if her expenses from Bristol had been paid as far as Liverpool or the contrary - as she would have to come so far - and you are so much richer than we are - but if you committed objection to this we will do what you suggest -

I should have thought the 2nd class would have sufficed - if you were again with the ~~3rd~~ 1st it will be too in - but this is private - excuse this very hurried note I have so much company again in my house - I can't sleep very well -

Yes I shall nestle you very much when I hear that time -

My aff

Wm
