Dear Mrs Bentinck

I have been expecting to hear from you regarding my drawing which I left with behind to be mounted and sent to you. Today
the sapient youth with whom I left it sends it on to me to know whether it is the particular drawing I meant! I am sorry for this delay.

In the morning I am sending it myself to the mount-cutter with instructions for it to go straight on to you.

I am not framing
it as I want you to see the drawing before this "transaction" is closed.
and want to know if you would have me
do any thing to it.

I ask this as the drawing as it appeared in the Herald had in the foreground & the figure of McKenna a "mechanical tone", that is, a
