Pilgrims Place course

(or to make more accurately Newfield Coventry)

3. May. 1910

Dear Miss Ward

I have racked my brains and Fred well has racked hers but the only likely suggestion that comes of it is the name of Surgeon-

General Ewart, who stood at a Liberal for Brighton, who is a very warm supporter, and (I should fancy / rather more of a ~~supra~~ than of a party man. A friend suggested to me W. F. Fallon secretary of the London Reform Union; but I would almost bet that he wd. be an adult - ~~supra~~ of the deepest deg. Besides, he wd. probably not give much offence to his society.

We have passed in review several young men but there is some drawback in every case. Either they are consistent party-men or they have already stood as independent candidates.

I am sorry to say I shall not be at Friday's meeting, much though I should wish to be. I must go to Bath on Friday about some literary work. The visit has been put off from week to week. Would you please, ask Miss Strachey to "accept this intimation" as they say in the advertisements?

Yours very truly
