My dearest Mama,

The next concert is on Wednesday. With 2 other boys I am going to sing "Three Fishermen sailed out into the West." We turned Mr. Sandford's table round the night before so that he would find it out next morning at early work.

But unfortunately he must have gone in in the night because in the morning he was in a bad temper, & ~~refused~~ instead of asking questions on paper he just did it viva-voce, not wanting to turn it round.

He didn't say a word about it, so we turned it back after breakfast. I think the train is 9.30 from here. Only 3 more days!

Good bye

Your loving son
James.

To Miss Schaller coming?
