Dear Mrs. How-Martyn,

Would you mind very much if we omitted the picture of the baby from the propaganda leaflet we discussed at our last Committee Meeting, and reserved it to put at the head of our annual report? If the picture heads the leaflet, I am afraid we shall not get it into three pages, and I should very much like to try and sell the last page for an advertisement by Cape or Heinemann, if they will take it.

Yours very truly,

Harold Cox

P.S. In circulating the propaganda leaflet, one can always enclose a copy of the leaflet already printed with the baby on it. But I find that men sometimes say to me "What on earth has child welfare got to do with Malthusian propaganda?"
