beaut. . It was lovely. yesterday.

I shall take the memory with me as well as the lavender water.

I send you a Paper, containing a few "memories" of my friend Maurice Guy Pearce, who died two days before he had completed his 88th year. He was my first love. as well as retain the place of "Daddy" & of "Comrade." all through my life. It is all very beautiful - no sadness about such a life or such a passing into the haron.

I also send just to amuse you. the article in the Evening News. very silly & very garbled. as all such articles are. but with just a grain of sense here & there.

I shall remember your promise to hold me in your dear Thoughts & Prayers.

Ever my beautiful friend

Yours. Emeline
