Dear Millicent

I have just read with such sadness the announcement in the Times. I hoped from your letter, your dear mother was really better - & now, she is no more to be a secret joy to us on earth. Still I know that for everyone who knew her there is a dear precious memory & for those who loved her as a mother, thoughts of love & thankfulness & joy & pride must of such a lovely life as hers.

Dear Sweet Lady, she never lived to grow old in the sense which makes age sad & I am sure you loved her well enough to rejoice that it is
