

Your mention of the question in the House has brought me two excellent books to day I received a message last night Mr. Thomas wants news of the husband. If his friends want to see direct and called me Nellie Taylor beyond the letter dear Nellie I enclose M. I shall get on splendidly now. Really it is not bad at all. I am only so anxious about the strikes. Can you bring me some stamps. I am called William Whiteley, the minister of providence. Mr. Toland lived at 106 Clarence <sup>Gate</sup> near Regent Park. Your dear hand letter has arrived. I am so glad you feel better about one because it is such a pity to worry about me when I do not even trouble myself about it to the least. My one to remind I seem to get so many perhaps - I don't know why. and now days go on like the days will pass quite quickly - I hope the strike will soon be settled Miss Roberts & Crooked have lots of things as I've given them troughs as I have request to hard labourer.

I think you are doing more than all outside
