LINCOLN'S INN, W.C.2.

Nov. 17.

Dearest Mrs Solomon.

In your most beautiful & comprising letter - many many thanks! It was wonderful for you to understand just what I wanted - & to send ^{me} your love. I know how one feels just for the moment: hotting but the hand & the warmth of friendship is any good -

As you say, one is perfectly sure that all things work together for good. I know in my heart

& hearts that there is no accident

& that nothing happens by chance

Our warmest love & thanks to dear dear Daisy, who was a little rock. Bless her!

We had a beautiful campaign

& a wonderful spirit in it -

And now, I realize afresh what dear people there are in the world -

Very much love from both

Ever melvin Pettit Lawrence
