Dear Miss Rinder,

I shall be very glad to go to Plaistow, and I am writing to Miss Bolton to ask where the Infants School is, as "Plaistow" is a little vague!

I understand that the tickets are only for those who not quite certain they can go, and (2) that I can give reserved seats to those who are sure of being there; (3) To what extent can I guarantee fares? And do I pay them and get them back from you? Or do they indent for so much?

The more definite one is the easier
it is to get people, I find.

Yours sincerely,
