Dear Mrs. Cassandra Brewster

First of all

I am sorry to hear you have had some matters of late.

It is well

I think that "Cimarron" acted as a lightning conductor.

It is a fine job to be very well done.

In my opinion, it is far better than "Yon Road"

The picture is a view of Philadelphia is exact.
I called on Mrs. Edson
Tolson at Claridge's,
where she was for a few days. The lot is about 36-37, & is charming, without any about of Rose.

A Jewess, I think, &
very handsome.

She is probably delighted about the success of Cincinnati, for which she has got twenty

five thousand dollars for the Cincinnati rights.

I cannot understand the Protestant Club.

The "Educational" I have not read; but see from previous the kind of book it is.

Miss Lachill West is, as you say, an excellent practitioner, but not so good as a prose writer.
Her telegraphic
address should be changed.

not removed for <sup>midnight</sup>, & very smartly dressed,
found a man <sup>number</sup> as he named "Nilly Jackson".

Told <sup>me</sup> that a friend, & asked him what he ought to do. The friend answered "Well perhaps,

you might consult a veterinary surgeon".

The Food Society might note.

especially the story
"Augustine Lopez" called in English, I think
"The Good Magdalen" Pray excuse my writing. My arm is still very sore.

Yours ever
